

Health and Wellbeing conference and exhibition 2019 13 March, Horizon Leeds

Partnership, commercial and exhibition opportunities

Does your organisation provide the products and services that can help the NHS tackle the challenges they face in the delivery of their health and wellbeing agenda? This event offers an unrivalled opportunity to position your innovative solutions in front of more than 120 NHS delegates with responsibility for delivering Health and Wellbeing initiatives in their Trust.

The programme will feature key figures from across the NHS, public and private sectors, as well as nearly 2 hours of protected exhibition time for networking with our delegates.

Don't miss this chance to raise your company's profile and build relationships with those involved with workplace health and wellbeing, who attend this event to find out what is happening nationally in wellbeing and are actively looking for products and solutions to help with their work.

On behalf of NHS Employers, I look forward to seeing you at the event and to working with you in 2019.
