

Top tip 8 – Get better at making change happen!

We know what people with learning disabilities want – they have been telling us for a long time!

Commissioners are about quality services that do good things for people.

Commissioners should start talking to people with learning disabilities right away and start making change happen.

June 2022

© NHS Confederation 2022

© Foundation for People with Learning Disabilities 2022